~800 employees	Sep 22 new CFO ahead of 2027 leadership transition	1 channel leader in HubSpot	0 joint deals logged

Bottom line

DataBank (Dallas, about 800 people) runs edge and enterprise data centers in many US markets, including the Chicago area. It named a new CFO (Ben Lowe, Sep 22) ahead of a 2027 leadership transition. Alex Brickman (Senior Director, Channel Sales) was enrolled Sep 30. Offer referrals both ways and confirm DataBank's Chicago-area sites against our routes.

What a data center partner is, in one analogy

A data center is a port; Crosstown builds the roads out of it. Ports recommend the roads their customers should use.

Channel: Only if the teammate hands it over | Subject: Chicago metro fiber for DataBank customers

Alex, Crosstown owns underground fiber in Chicago, on-net at 350 E Cermak, Elk Grove and Polk, mapped to the conduit. If DataBank's Chicago-area customers need diverse metro paths, we'd like to be a referral partner. 20 minutes?
