STAGE Partner: recruit.	RUNNING NOW CTF PARTNER - Warm Network (launched Oct 1; LinkedIn message is a Lemlist task): Cameron Wynne	LAST TOUCH None logged	NEXT STEP Mon Oct 5: personal email to Cameron Wynne (Chief Data Center Officer)

Bottom line

Element Critical (Austin, about 111 people) operates data centers including in the Chicago market. Operations hiring is at a 6-month high. Cameron Wynne, Chief Data Center Officer, is in your Warm Network draft, so he's a personal connection. Use that to set up a lateral or meet-me discussion for its Chicago site.

What a data center partner is, in one analogy

A data center is a port; Crosstown builds the roads out of it. Ports recommend the roads their customers should use.

Cameron, it's been a while. Crosstown has kept building underground fiber in Chicago (Cermak, Elk Grove, Polk), mapped to the conduit. I'd love to talk about diverse paths for Element Critical's Chicago tenants. Lunch this month?
