Bottom line

Expedient (Pittsburgh, about 400 people) provides private cloud, DR and data center services, and is hiring a Product Marketing Manager for AI and a Director of Market Development. Its Chicago-area customers need diverse paths into its facilities. Andres Jara (Account Executive) is in the Warm Network draft but not in HubSpot.

What a data center partner is, in one analogy

A data center is a port; Crosstown builds the roads out of it. Ports recommend the roads their customers should use.
