

LEAD Tech: likely a staffing firm, not a fiber buyer; verify and close

Account entry plan for Spencer Refer | Prepared Thursday, October 1, 2026 | Sources: HubSpot, ZoomInfo

Tampa HQ per ZoomInfo	~14 employees	1 HubSpot contact (Data Center Engineer)	0 touches so far
STAGE Qualification: likely disqualify	RUNNING NOW None	LAST TOUCH None	NEXT STEP Fri Oct 9: check where Benjamin Crouch actually works

Bottom line

ZoomInfo matches lead-technical.com to LEAD Technical, a 14-person staffing agency in Tampa that places engineers and tradespeople. The one HubSpot contact, Benjamin Crouch (Data Center Engineer), is probably a contractor placed at a client's data center. If so, the real target is that client, not LEAD. Check his LinkedIn for the site he works at, then either re-home him to that account or disqualify LEAD Tech.

What this account is, in one analogy

LEAD is the temp agency, not the employer. Follow the worker to the building he actually works in.
