

Marex: a growing Chicago clearing house with a Chicago IT leader

Account entry plan for Spencer Refer | Prepared Thursday, October 1, 2026 | Sources: HubSpot, Lemlist, ZoomInfo, Apollo

91 Data Center intent score	$319M H1 2026 profit	11 Marex contacts in HubSpot	0 conversations so far
STAGE Prospect. No deal.	RUNNING NOW CTF ENT - Leaders (Matt Straight, Philip Lee, Andrew Girin); Practitioners (Bangad, Mehboob); INTL (Lee Macdonald, Gumuskaya, Murphy)	LAST TOUCH Sep 29-30: enrollments only; no emails sent	NEXT STEP Mon Oct 5: email Matt Straight (EVP, Chicago)

Bottom line

Marex is a London-listed broker and clearing firm that is growing fast and buying companies: H1 profit of $319M, a CME cross-margining program, Kalshi work, and acquisitions of Webb Traders, Bright Point and Brainchild. ZoomInfo shows Data Center intent at 91. Marex absorbed Rosenthal Collins Group (RCG) in Chicago, and its EVP Matt Straight (Chicago, 312) still runs global IT for Marex Spectron. Acquisitions mean integrating networks, and that is when firms add or replace circuits. Start with Straight and the Chicago infrastructure architect Andrew Girin.

What Marex is, in one analogy

Marex is a family buying houses on the same street: every new house needs plumbing joined to the main line. Crosstown sells the pipes under the Chicago street.

Signals worth citing

Signal	Source	So what for the opener
Data Center intent 91	ZoomInfo intent	Researching facilities now.
H1 profit $319M; CME cross-margining; Kalshi	ZoomInfo news	Growth and more CME traffic.
Acquired Webb Traders, Bright Point, Brainchild	ZoomInfo news	Network integration work.
Matt Straight, EVP RCG / Head of Global IT Marex Spectron, Chicago	HubSpot, Lemlist	Senior local sponsor.
Andrew Girin, Infrastructure Architect (ex-Sr Director US IT Infra), Chicago	HubSpot	Technical owner in Chicago.

Work already in motion

Marex is broadly enrolled but nobody has been emailed yet.

Who to reach, in order

Contact	Title (source)	Where	Why they matter	Status / email
Matt Straight	EVP RCG / Head of Global IT, Marex Spectron (HubSpot)	Chicago	Senior sponsor.	Leaders; not yet emailed
Andrew Girin	Infrastructure Architect (HubSpot)	Chicago	Technical owner.	Leaders; not yet emailed
Lee Macdonald	Head of Infrastructure (Apollo; ex-JPMorgan)	London	Global infra head.	INTL
George Batman	Network Operations Lead (HubSpot)	n/a	Circuits.	Not contacted
Guillaume Pradel	Trading Infrastructure Specialist (HubSpot)	n/a	Trading paths.	Not contacted

Not worth chasing for this goal

Connor Murphy (security) is not a network buyer. London engineers stay in INTL.

How the access path should run

Messages, by contact

1. Matt Straight EVP RCG / Head of Global IT

Why them: Chicago sponsor; growth story.

Channel: Email Mon Oct 5 | Subject: Chicago paths as Marex integrates acquisitions

Matt, with Webb Traders, Bright Point and Brainchild joining and CME cross-margining live, I'd guess Chicago circuits are on someone's list. Crosstown owns underground fiber on-net at 350 E Cermak and Elk Grove, mapped to the conduit, from our office in Lombard. Who on your team should see the map? Andrew?

2. Andrew Girin Infrastructure Architect

Why them: Technical owner in Chicago.

Channel: Email Wed Oct 7 | Subject: A conduit map for Marex's Chicago circuits

Andrew, I can send our Chicago route map in KMZ so you can check where current circuits share conduit. If useful, I'll walk through it in 20 minutes.

The plan

When	Move	Notes
Mon Oct 5	Email Matt Straight.	Pause his generic Leaders step.
Wed Oct 7	Email Andrew Girin with KMZ offer.	-
Mon Oct 12	Call Straight's 312 line.	-
Week of Oct 19	Goal: route review with Girin.	-
Nov	Loop in Lee Macdonald with a proposal.	-

What progress looks like (for management)

By	Milestone	How we will know
Oct 16	Reply from Straight or Girin	Logged
Oct 30	Route review held	Meeting logged
Dec 15	Proposal sent	Deal created
