

Relativity: an AI build-out at a Chicago software company

Account entry plan for Spencer Refer | Prepared Thursday, October 1, 2026 | Sources: HubSpot, Lemlist, ZoomInfo, Apollo

STAGE Prospect. No deal.	RUNNING NOW CTF ENT - Leaders (Silas Adams, CISO), Sep 30; Aleksander Uzunov touched Sep 30	LAST TOUCH Sep 30: email to Aleksander Uzunov (Lead Network Engineer)	NEXT STEP Mon Oct 5: email Gosia Siegenfeld (Director, Global IT Infrastructure and Operations)

Bottom line

Relativity makes the RelativityOne e-discovery platform (about 1,600 people) and is headquartered at 231 S LaSalle. ZoomInfo shows Data Center 91 and Cloud 91 (both audience A) and Networking 77. It's hiring heavily for AI engineering in Chicago. The platform runs mostly in the cloud, so the likely fit is corporate connectivity and diverse cloud on-ramps from the LaSalle HQ, not data center space. The Leaders campaign went to the CISO; the owner is Gosia Siegenfeld. Keith Carlson (CTO, ex-AWS) is the sponsor.

What Relativity is, in one analogy

Relativity's product lives in the cloud, but its people commute on our roads. A second road from the office to the cloud on-ramps keeps them working when the first is closed.

Signals worth citing

Signal	Source	So what for the opener
Data Center 91 (A), Cloud 91 (A), Networking Solutions 77, Net/Telecom 77	ZoomInfo intent	Infrastructure research.
AI engineering hiring in Chicago (Sep)	ZoomInfo scoops	More traffic to the cloud.
Keith Carlson, CTO since 2019; ex-AWS GM	Apollo	Cloud-first sponsor.

Work already in motion

One technical email and a misdirected Leaders enrollment.

When	Channel / campaign	What happened	Read
Sep 30	CTF ENT - Leaders	Silas Adams (CISO) enrolled	Wrong audience
Sep 30	Email	Aleksander Uzunov (Lead Network Engineer)	No reply yet

Who to reach, in order

Contact	Title (source)	Where	Why they matter	Status / email
Gosia Siegenfeld	Director, Global IT Infrastructure and Operations (HubSpot, Apollo)	Chicago	Owner.	Not contacted. gosia.siegenfeld@relativity.com
Aleksander Uzunov	Lead Network Engineer (HubSpot)	Chicago	Technical.	Emailed Sep 30
Keith Carlson	CTO (Apollo)	Chicago	Sponsor.	Not contacted. keith.carlson@relativity.com (verified). Hold

Not worth chasing for this goal

CISO; product and AI engineers.

How the access path should run

Messages, by contact

1. Gosia Siegenfeld Director, Global IT Infrastructure and Operations

Why them: Owner.

Channel: Email Mon Oct 5 | Subject: Two separate paths from 231 S LaSalle to the cloud

Gosia, with AI hiring ramping at LaSalle, the office's path to the cloud on-ramps at 350 E Cermak matters more. Crosstown owns underground fiber there, mapped to the conduit, so you can prove the backup doesn't share a duct with the primary. 20 minutes?

The plan

When	Move	Notes
Fri Oct 2	Pause the CISO's Leaders steps.	-
Mon Oct 5	Email Gosia Siegenfeld.	-
Wed Oct 7	Follow up with Aleksander Uzunov (KMZ).	-
Week of Oct 19	Goal: path review.	-

What progress looks like (for management)

By	Milestone	How we will know
Oct 16	Reply	Logged
Oct 30	Path review held	Meeting logged

Guardrails

- Don't pitch colocation; Relativity is cloud-first.
- Credits used: ZoomInfo company and signals for 1 company; 1 Apollo person enrichment.
