

TBI: a Chicago master agent; one relationship reaches hundreds of agents

Partner activation plan for Spencer Refer | Prepared Thursday, October 1, 2026 | Sources: HubSpot, Lemlist, ZoomInfo

Chicago HQ (since 1991)	~200 employees	1 channel manager in HubSpot	Tier A partner priority
STAGE Partner: recruit.	RUNNING NOW CTF PARTNER - Warm Network (draft): Eddie Wolfe	LAST TOUCH None logged	NEXT STEP Mon Oct 5: personal email to Eddie Wolfe (National Channel Manager)

Bottom line

TBI is a Chicago-based master agent (founded 1991, about 200 people). It contracts with carriers and supports a large network of sub-agents. Being a TBI supplier puts Crosstown in front of many agents at once, including some of the small advisors you've enrolled individually. Eddie Wolfe (National Channel Manager) is in the Warm Network draft. Explore whether Crosstown can join TBI's supplier lineup for Chicago dark fiber and lit services. The agency agreement already allows Sub-Agents (approved by Crosstown and bound by the same terms), which is how a master-agent relationship can work under today's paper.

What this partner is, in one analogy

A master agent is a wholesale club for agents. Get on its shelf once, and every member can pick you up.
